

iQniter is concerned about protecting the privacy of all our users' data. We will not use any information provided to us through using our Software, website or related services, other than to facilitate your experience and ease of use under and in accordance with the License Agreement as well as to be able to inform you of product upgrades and/or enable you to receive offers and services of iQniter.

1 COLLECTING AND USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your Personal Information is mainly needed or used for the following purposes:

- To inform you of product upgrades, updated information and/or new offers and services of iQniter.
- To provide you with customized service and contents.
- To identify you as the user, the purchaser or the person downloading software, access account and for billing purposes.
- To share your equipment (e.g. heart rate belt) data and related personal data across fitness clubs you exercise in.
- To facilitate email or other services provided as part of iQniter Software, iQniter services or related services.

Your password is known only to you unless you disclose it to others. We highly recommend that you do not disclose your password to anyone.

Provided that you have accepted to receive e-mails, iQniter or your club may distribute e-mails to you concerning training and relating promotion information. The use can at any time unsubscribe to this information independent of the reception of training status.

Certain iQniter services may be provided to you in conjunction with a third party supplier, publisher or developer. iQniter will not distribute, sell or rent any of the personal information you have provided to us without providing to you prior notice of our intention to do so and a clear opportunity for you to prevent any such disclosure.

iQniter uploads your personal training data to iQniter Cloud. With the aim of providing you with services from Movescount (trademark of SUUNTO) and other iQniter partners, your training data may be transferred to these services, dependent on your prior accept when using these services. The data uploaded to Movescount are handled according to the privacy terms for using Movescount <http://www.movescount.com/privacy>.

By using the relevant website /or by submitting personal data to iQniter/or by clicking "I Agree", depending on the website, service, or application you are using, you express your consent and agreement to the processing of your personal data in the manner provided in this Policy. If you do not agree with this Policy, please do not use iQniter website or the iQniter software, or provide iQniter with your personal data, or do not grant your consent otherwise.

2 COLLECTING DOMAIN NAME, IP ADDRESS AND OTHER INFORMATION

iQniter collects computer names, IP addresses, user names, emails and other related information, which are used when using iQniter Software.

Domain-names and/or IP addresses are collected for system analysis and internal tracking purposes only. An IP address is a numeric code that identifies your computer on a network, or in this case, the Internet. Collecting will occur automatically when using iQniter software.

3 COLLECTING SOFTWARE PERFORMANCE INFORMATION

iQniter collects information about the performance of the Software. This information is solely used to currently improve the quality of the Software and related services.

iQniter uses its best efforts to protect Personal Information against loss and unauthorized use. Further, iQniter will not disclose your Personal Information to third parties excluding, however, iQniter subsidiaries, affiliates or suppliers to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Please beware that personal information may be legally and rightfully disclosed when it is required by law or when we are protecting iQniter's rights or property or the rights or property of other iQniter users, if we have reason to believe that other parties may be interfering with your or our rights and property.

5 UPDATE OF PRIVACY POLICY

iQniter reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Any use of iQniter software or website signifies that you agree to current iQniter Privacy Policy as well as the License Agreement.
